

Starseeds 4 Peace Report

Episode three

by Thomas Kunz

January 2021

Preface

Ahoy dear people, I greet you in the light and love of the One Infinite Creator!

It is an honour for me to continue to write for you! In the past months I have experienced a lot and many impulses have been brought to me, so that I now have more than enough material for a new report. As always, this report is meant to help you get your bearings, but also to let you know that you are not alone in these exciting times. As in the past two reports, I continue to try to build many bridges, especially between the German-speaking and English-speaking language areas. Likewise, I continue to try to bring my light into the dark areas of human consciousness to remind people again that they have a divine soul in their heart that holds much more power, love and creativity than most are aware of.

As always, I ask you not to simply take my word for it, but to use your heart and intuition to see for yourself what resonates with you.

Infos from the meditations

As some of you have already seen on my website, the meditation cycle "Seed of Life" was successfully completed on the day of the summer solstice. I am a bit puzzled due to the fact that different dates are given on the internet for the equinoxes and solstices. Anyway, the mediation took place on Saturday, June 20 at 12 noon. I think that was the right time, because due to the leap year the calendar shifted by one day in relation to the planetary movement.

The last "Seed of Life Meditation" took place in Lucerne on the beautiful lawn of the musical college (Konservatorium). As always, when the meditation takes place in the open air, the connection to the consciousness of the Earth is established much more easily, and the meditation gains in power and expression. We were also able to enjoy the good weather that we have ordered at the universe, many thanks for that!

Despite several hundred hours of meditative preparation, the meditation went a little bit hard at the beginning, due to the very strong energetic counterforces, which were also highly active on this day and tried again in the old familiar manner to drive as many wedges as possible between the involved souls, and to exploit all possible individual weaknesses. Another factor was that we meditated on this meadow for the first time, and the start of the meditation being advanced by 6 hours also played a role. In other words, if you are doing your own meditation, I recommend choosing the place and time as consistently as possible. The place and time charge up with each meditation you do, and that favors the further executions of the meditation.

When we meet for meditation, we always debrief afterwards to combine our experiences and the puzzle pieces we received. Right after this debriefing, we were able to film and photograph a particularly beautiful celestial phenomenon that was also sighted and documented in other parts of the world. I have produced a small video for you so that everyone can participate. Please have a look, it is worth it. Here is the link to it: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=SRlgxBDhF68>

On the following picture you can see again a physical ship, which had escaped my attention during the production of the video. Only when Youtube wanted a cover photo for the video, I found it. Maybe you will also find one, there is a lot flying around (even some insects) 😊

I would be happy to provide the original footage if anyone would like to investigate further. By the way, no corrections to contrast and brightness took place. The colors looked even more impressive from the biological eye than on the video. With sunglasses on, the colors were even a bit more intense because the contrast was higher.

How special this last meditation was, I realized only a few weeks later. Actually, I would have liked to have the big first contact with our galactic friends, but the time was not yet ripe for it. Since I spent all my energy on this meditation cycle, I was at an energetic low point in the following weeks, which of course was additionally worked on by the darkly motivated entities.

I was particularly pleased that the video was also linked by Ronald Michael Zeranski in his newsletter, with a request to send me some energy. This energy has reached me, and I sincerely thank all the senders! It has helped me very much to be able to resume my work for you.

I would like to elaborate a little more on what the colored cloud means to me. As already indicated in the video, I consider the cloud to be a multidimensional gate controlled by loving intelligence, through which a great deal of light and love is directed from the higher dimensions to the earth population. This lightful energy supports all purification processes and thus also has a positive effect on the ascension of the Earth and all life on it, as well as on the further preparation of first contact. The video is also a proof of the support of our galactic friends, and thanks to the visible physical spaceships it is also a proof that not all flying objects have to have wings.

So you see, meditations have effects, and it was a special pleasure for us to be able to film the effects and share them with you. Because this is not self-evident and also for us light workers and light warriors something very special.

With the video also a clearly visible sign was created for all, which on the one hand serves as an encouragement for the light&shadow work, and on the other hand puts pressure on all structures, which lie to us since centuries concerning our galactic friends. And it represents therefore also a move executed at the optimal time on the multidimensional chessboard, and it has therefore also a direct relation to my Jaunar report, as I may state with great joy.

Here are two more pictures of probably the same phenomenon. They were taken on August 29th, 2020 in Florida.

Another interesting picture was taken during the second wave of mass protests in Berlin. Like many other lightworkers and lightwarriors I accompanied these protests meditatively to make sure that the protests were peaceful.

Again, the perfect timing can be observed, the people on the surface show their lights in peaceful intensity, and the sky answers synchronously. Great cinema, as we say in german 😊!

Maybe you would like to know how the meditations organized by S4P will continue. I am in the process of writing a new meditation and also producing a video for it. But it will take a while until it is finished. One small detail I can already convey is that the number 7 will continue to play a big role and we will visit 7 beautiful mountains, starting in Zermatt at the Matterhorn. Then we will travel on to Kailash, Fuji, Uluru, Kilimanjaro, Machu Pichu, and finally to Mount Adams. We will consciously continue to work with the higher dimensional support teams and Source to bring more and more light and love into the fields of the people and the earth.

I have carried out this 7 mountains meditation already some times for testing purpose. In this respect I consider it as a particularly nice synchronicity that the phenomenon with the colored cloud near the Matterhorn has occurred again shortly after the winter solstice 2020s! Really cool, thank you dear universe! Here the photos to it:

The masks continue to fall

Before I go deeper into the mask topic, I'll try to lighten the situation with a little humor.

If it's getting worse, I will go to the demonstration too... Silence number 8492!!!!

Are you the only survivor on this planet?

Yes they forgot to vaccinate me!

Top left: Soon there will be a new RNA vaccine. I will immediately get it. What do you say to that?

Top right: Hokus pokus, I conjure up a guinea pig .

Mister Lauterbach (known Politician from Germany), I will now release this deadly virus. Don't be afraid, you have optimal protection!

So much for the humorous part of the Corona masked ball...

In Latin language the mask is called Persona, this can be easily checked with the usual translation programs. So all the words like personal, personal ID, person are directly related to the mask. This mask is put on all of us when the birth certificate is issued, whether we agree with it or not. And that's really what the mass protests are about. Because the seemingly powerful politicians and mass media are losing their interpretive sovereignty, they know about their crimes and are now trying to put the mask back on us with targeted psychological warfare. They want an outwardly visible sign from us that they may continue to lie to us and deceive us. It is about the control of your consciousness, and thus also about the control of your behavior in society. Stefan Aust, editor of the newspaper "Die Zeit", also sees it that way.

Stefan Aust, Herausgeber von »Die WELT«

He says: The mask must be worn for the sake of the mask. As a symbol of obedience to the measures of those in power.

Even the well-known in Switzerland "Mr. Corona" Daniel Koch admits quite openly that the wearing of the mask has an educational and not a medical character. In the middle of the midsummer the mask obligation was introduced in Switzerland and since then there were only further tightenings. Here is another good article about this, in my opinion, criminal process:

<https://www.orwell-news.ch/maskenpflicht-soll-erziehen-nicht-schuetzen/>

But as we have seen in based on the protests of August 1 and 29 in Berlin, the shot clearly backfires. Millions of people took off their masks, took to the streets and raised their voices against the partly draconian measures of the government. These millions of impulses were received by the mass consciousness of humanity and cannot be removed. The videos went around the world and everyone could see with their own eyes how the police tried to break up the demonstration several times by means of massive use of force.

Also present in Berlin was a nephew of John F. Kennedy, who added a very important piece to the puzzle. In his speech he communicated an anecdote from the Nuremberg Trials, which I would like to pass on to you translated word for word. Link to the video here:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=mu90-9MKGk0>

"They asked Hermann Göring at that time how people follow the Nazis. He said: Quite simply, that has nothing to do with Nazism. You can do that in socialism, in communism, in democracy. It's human nature. We just have to make people afraid and then they will follow us."

My conclusion: Fear was and still is a very bad advisor, and blind obedience leads to massive damage for all people, then as now.

So dear politicians, policemen, bankers, weapon manufacturers, doctors, journalists, judges, lawyers and office armchair warmers, do you slowly realize how the rabbit runs? To say, I have only done my job will not help you! We lightworkers and lightwarriors are still to forgive everything, but for this to work, you have to stop your attacks and end all deception games. And so that they can be ended, you must move and begin to investigate yourselves and to examine whether the fetters passed on for generations are conducive to the general desire for freedom and justice or not!

Under no circumstances can really awakened people be fobbed off with new elections, in order to be lied to and enslaved afterwards further systematically by you! The light of truth comes inexorably and ever more clearly into all levels of the human civilization, and reveals all deceptions and causes of violence and war. Layer by layer your slave system will be exposed and dissolved, and you will feel good when you realize what you have spent your energy on.

An extremely good example of the systematic executed fraud of the politicians, bankers and mass media is the video of Mensch Heino. Here the link to it:

In this video it is explained exactly how people are made into persons, but also what rights and possibilities we have to defend ourselves against this madness. It is also clearly stated that all police officers have a duty to remonstrate. In concrete terms, this means that every police officer must examine every order to see whether he can reconcile the order with his conscience and carry it out. If so, it is executed and the policeman is personally liable for all consequential damages and also for all breaches of law that are committed by it! If a policeman remonstrates, his superior must take over the liability. The superior can then order the remonstrating policeman to go into action or withdraw him from the action. That's why fear is also used from above within the police force. Sheep-like acting police officers are very useful for those who play dark games against humanity.

In Berlin, some police officers are already taking off their helmets, because they clearly realize that they, too, have a heart, and that their children are also affected by the absurdly disproportionate measures. For this reason, I also think that the demonstrations make sense, because in this way the impulses of truth can flow from heart to heart. Join us dear policemen! You also belong to the human family!

Another detail has emerged unexpectedly clear in Germany and England: thank you dear employees of the company police, that you show us so clearly that you have been massively infiltrated by the Freemasons. Every time you kneel down at "Black Lives Matter" demonstrations, you make us understand that.

Note the symbolism: angle, loincloth and kneeling.

Lewis Hamilton, a very successful F1 driver with dark skin, of course thinks this is great and has also introduced this at the ceremonies that take place before the start of each F1 race. He also wears the "Black Lives Matter" T-shirt. And as a racing fan, that naturally pisses me off. Because political advertising is forbidden at sporting events, or so I thought. In addition, I find the slogan extremely racist, it serves above all to divide society, as can be seen above all in the riots in the USA. This is also about triggering civil war conditions with fatal consequences. And that cannot be in the interest of the peace movement. That is why I am raising my voice, as are many other people.

ALL LIFE IS MATTERS, also that of the animals, the plants and of course also that of the Earth! Follow your hearts and be there for each other.

The 12-dimensional chess game continues

In the January 19 Report, I went out on a limb and issued an ultimatum. But as we all see, the darkly motivated structures have no desire to cede their apparent power and have moved to a frontal counterattack, with mandatory masks, vaccination terror, fear porn, etc. But this also creates a super opportunity for a round of spiritual Aikido!

OK, here we go, the first move (redirection/dissolution of the dark motivated energy) concerns secret contracts in general, the second concerns the energetic situation between the female and the male energy and the third concerns the energetic structures which are between the stars (=cosmic portal network, electroplasmic filaments) and the fourth move concerns the energetic connection of all earthly consciousness to the source. I would be happy to elaborate on this.

Secret contracts

As you may already know, on the deeper dimensions, that is where we still are, interactions with ET's are governed by contracts. This allowed the light and dark motivated ET's to participate in the human experiment and experience without the humans on the surface being aware or having to be aware. Compare this to Corey Goode's information regarding the 22 genetic programs.

However, these contracts were greatly abused by the dark beings and very poorly honored. Thus, many people have had severe pain inflicted, life energy sucked out, eggs, sperm and fetuses removed, implants inserted, etc - without the agreed-upon consideration. All this has led to extremely strong distortions and injuries in the human collective consciousness, and the resulting traumas acted as a great anchor in the human consciousness.

But this is now fundamentally changing, as I, together with my wonderful team, have succeeded in dissolving these contracts for the whole human collective and clearing the way for the healing process on this level. Due to the sheer volume of such secret contracts, the dissolution had to be divided into approximately 90 waves of dissolution. At the moment, we are close to completing these contract dissolutions.

Moreover, it is no longer permitted to conclude new contracts, because now we are in the phase of revelations. In concrete terms, this means that soon©™® there will come a time when humanity will know the full extent and content of all these contracts and the contacts that are taking place in secret.

The dissolution of the secret treaties also means an expanded authority for the light forces to be active for the highest good of all life on earth. Thus, the creation of new light barriers is currently occurring to keep the remaining dark and abusive ET's away from Earth. Thus also the collective healing process is strongly supported, because no more new assaults are added and the previously existing assaults are stopped. In addition, by ending the energy robbery, there is also more energy available for the collective and individual healing process. This is an important step on the path of self-empowerment and reunification with our cosmic neighbors. In addition, all this also greatly facilitates the work of the higher dimensional light forces.

Accompanying the dissolution of the treaties are also further physical removals of negatively motivated ET's. Nice progress 😊

Healing of the female and male energy

The many abuses and oppressions have left deep traces in the exchange between the female and male energy. The female beings, for self-protection, began to erect an energetic barrier that prevented the inflow of the male energy to a great extent. Thus, many men were also hurt in their approaches because they were literally catapulted out of the accesses to the female part of the community by this energy barrier. Out of self-protection, the collective masculine energy hid itself in a kind of emotional armor, which led to a further lowering of vibration, and because of the diminished empathy that resulted, also caused further injuries to the feminine energy. Thus a downward spiral formed, which was additionally also fueled by the negative ET's.

This downward spiral is now also in the process of dissolution, just like the secret contracts. Some people are already involved in the creation of the new collective relationship space, where unconditional love has a central meaning and importance. The creation of the new relationship space is currently still in its early stages. The effects are not yet clearly noticeable, but this is expected to increase in the coming months.

The Lyra Fireball and the Healing of the Electroplasmic Filaments

As you may already know, there are naturally occurring energetic connections between stars. These connections are often referred to as the cosmic web and provide a natural portal system that can be used for rapid travel to other star systems. This web is also used for the transmission of light codes and conscious communication from star to star.

In the course of time, the darkly motivated ET's began to disrupt these natural connections with large technical devices. This enabled them to gain more and more control over the cosmic energy and information distribution. This led on the light side also to the fact that the universal creation process was disturbed. In concrete terms, this manifested itself in such a way that, for example, a newly created star could not unfold its power because the energy supply was disturbed. The star remained dark instead of shining brightly. (Compare also the text of the Arcturus sample, there also irregularities in the creation process of solar systems were mentioned ; -)

The interference in the energy exchange between the stars also caused problems in the ascension process of many planets. A great cosmic ascension jam developed.

To counteract this disorganized situation, thanks to the loving cooperation of many billions of light workers from all over the universe, a gigantic fireball was created in the star system Lyra, which was almost as large as a galaxy at the end of the charging process.

The energy of this fireball was discharged in three steps. In the first step, the energy was directed so that the negative spirals of experience were dissolved. Likewise, the associated karma was dissolved, and the resonance to negative experiences is cancelled.

The free will of the beings affected by it remains. The universe will continue to provide the potential for negative experiences.

I know the last few sentences sound a bit cryptic, but that's all I can say at this time. I am curious myself to learn more details.

In the second step, part of the fiery energy was directed into the cosmic web, where all manipulative devices are now destroyed. This process has started in the early hours of 24.11.2020 and is almost completed. This process is also taking place throughout the universe. 177000 specialists from all over the universe are working on the distribution of the energy from the fireball.

The source has still significantly increased the frequency of the prepared fireball, and the strength of the discharge into the cosmic network has also been increased quite significantly. With the removal of the interfering devices, a new harmonic balance between the stars is now also being established. As a direct result, some updates are now needed to the star charts used by filament travelers. As another direct consequence, the congestion in the cosmic ascension process is thus cleared.

Simultaneously with the discharge of energy from the gigantic fireball, a new class of stars was also created, which connected to form a new network. These new stars support the purification process in the cosmic network. Also coming to life were some stars that previously could not "ignite" properly.

The third and final discharge took place at the winter solstice, surely most of you have felt this extremely high energy very directly. The last discharge led to a stabilization of the inflow of higher-dimensional light, which will have a very positive effect on all life on earth and the further ascension process.

Finally, I would like to point out that even the darkly motivated souls are loved by the source, and they have the longest way back to the source. So we do well if we always carry unconditional love in our hearts or at least keep it as a moral guide in the solution set.

S4P LIVE Meditations

It is my great pleasure to invite you to the new S4P meditations. They always take place from Mondays to Fridays, and are broadcast LIVE on Youtube. Here is the link:

https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCmv7xbmQvE0T3glu_z-Bmiw

The meditations are always held on Monday, Wednesday and Friday in German, and on Tuesday and Thursday in English.

Also new is a Telegram channel, where I post the links for each video. Here is the link to the channel:

<https://t.me/starseeds4peace>

I would be happy to welcome you there.

Closing words

So that would be it so far. I would have liked to write much more, I still have some chapters on the ToDo list. I'll just postpone them to the next report, since this text is to be published as soon as possible.

Finally, I would like to add a few words from Mahatma Gandhi again:

I offer you peace,

I offer you love

I offer you friendship

I see your beauty

I hear your needs

I feel your feelings

My wisdom flows from the highest source

I salute this source in you

Let us work together, for unity and peace.

I love you all,

Namaste and Nomaske

Thomas Kunz

ThanQ for your attention 😊
